COLLEGE NOTES.

All news items will be gratefully received by the Editor of "College News." Such items must reach the Tea Room before eight o'clock each Monday morning.

During the past week the following notice appeared upon the athletic bulletin board. "Owing to the lack of enthusiasm for athletics in College as shown by the small number of names entered for Field Day the Committee has decided to postpone the event, at least, until Spring. It is earnestly desired that in the interim the individual students will endeavor to arouse that athletic spirit which is so sadly lacking."

Julia Wells,

For the Committee.

The above notice hardly needs comment. The "Crisis in Athletics" which has been foretold for the last two years is at hand. It remains with the student body whether or not there are to be athletics and an athletic spirit (worthy of the name) at Wellesley College. The "lack of enthusiasm" referred to above, is certainly not due to either the Heads of the Sports, or to Miss Hill. One year ago the organization known as the Athletic Association dropped out of existence, each sport continuing by itself. This was done in the hope that each student would devote undivided attention to her one chosen sport and so raise the standard of all. This was partly successful inasmuch as there are different sports, each boasting of some members—but when these different sports are called together by their respective heads to give a combined event to the College—as Field Day—there is no response from the students. And so the case rests. If the girls wish any sort of athletic contests and accompanying enthusiasm they must brace up. Otherwise athletics which now at best are practically only a name, will cease to be even that.

On Monday evening, October 28, there will be a reading in College Hall Chapel, by Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker of New York City. Mrs. Baker is a German-American and stands foremost in the ranks of her profession. Werner's magazine says of her, "Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker is considered by many to be the best woman reader in this country. Artists often deserve praise as much for what they leave undone as for what they do, and one of the most pleasing characteristics of Mrs. Baker's work is its absence of superfluities. She makes no unnecessary gestures; she employs no stage tricks; she has no mannerisms. Throughout her work an impression is given of great dramatic force, but it is force controlled and directed, subservient to the artistic effect, never overpowering and destroying it. Her rendition is first of all an intellectual rendition, in which no least thought of the author is slurred over to give scope for greater elocutionary display; yet the underlying current of passion and feeling is there, and thrills you more by very contrast with the simplicity of her manner, and the quietude of her deep, rich, contralto voice. Add to her genius as a reader, and to her wonderful voice, the attraction of a magnificent personality, and some idea may be gathered of the charm of her work."

The programme for the evening is as follows;—

PART 1.

My Last Duchess.

Love Among the Ruins.

Prologue and Epilogue to Two Poets of Croisic.

Abt Vogler.

The Patriot.

Marching Along.

Andrea del Sarto.

Prospect.

Robert Browning.

PART 2.

Die Jungfrau von Orleans,

Act III, Sc. 9, 10 and 11.

Schiller.

Maria Stuart, Act III, Sc. 1,

Schiller.

Erkönig,

Goethe.

Aus alten Märcchen,

Heine.

Part II is to be given in German, in accordance with the wish of the German department.

The department of elocution is projecting a course of readings, by the finest readers available, such as Leland Powers and Samuel Arthur King. Whether this course will be undertaken or not depends entirely upon the response met with from the student body. Miss Bennett hopes to offer such a course out of schedule time, and at the cost of $1.00 for the whole series of readings.

Sunday, the 27th of October, a King Alfred celebration will be observed in the different churches throughout the country. At our own vesper services in the chapel, two of King Alfred's prayers will be used, and the music will be chosen from the early period.

A friend of the College has made a donation for the purpose of buying Symphony tickets to be distributed among the girls in the theory department. This affords a rare opportunity to many students and is greatly appreciated.

The College Choir, skillfully organized and carefully trained by Prof. Hamilton C. Macdougall, is, by a special request of the students, to figure more prominently in the vesper services this year. This is very good news as we believe there is much dormant talent in this body.

At a meeting of the Student Government Association held on last Friday afternoon, the following motions were made and carried.

1st, That the Day of Prayer be changed from Thursday to Sunday.

2nd, That the chair appoint a committee who shall try to arouse more athletic spirit in the College.

COLLEGE NOTES.

3rd, That the Student Government discourage the promiscuous wearing of the Wellesley College seal pin.

Miss Louise Prouty and Miss Lilla Weed spoke on the abuse of the library privileges by the students, and gave a statement of the library rules in other colleges. The final work of the meeting was to determine the following offices in College.

Major offices;

Class presidents, Senior vice-president, Executive Board of S. G. A., including four officers and members from the three upper classes, President of College Hall, President of the Christian Association, Society Presidents, President of Barnswallows, Editor-in-Chief of the Magazine, Editor-in-Chief of the Legenda.

Dr. Alice Luce, formerly of the Literature Department at Wellesley, has returned to Oberlin, from a summer spent in Germany.

Miss Marion E. Hubbard, instructor in Zoology, is ill with typhoid fever in Chicago.

Miss Elizabeth F. Fisher, instructor in Geology, is absent from College, owing to illness. In her absence Professor Wm. H. Niles, the Head of this Department, is giving the lectures in geology this year, and Miss Hayes, professor of the department of applied mathematics, is conducting the quizzes. Dr. Charles H. Warren of the Institute of Technology is in charge of the course in mineralogy.

Miss Susan M. Hallowell, Professor of Botany, is away from the College for the year on her Sabbatical leave of absence. She will spend the year in this country. In her absence Miss Clara E. Cummings, Associate Professor of Botany, has charge of the Botany Department. The assistant for the year is Miss Margaret Ferguson, who received her Ph. D. degree from Cornell in June 1901.

The Southern Club held a reception to welcome its new members, on Saturday, October 19, from four to six, in the student's parlor. The officers of the club are: Lucy Harrison, '02, President; Julia F. Wells, '02, Vice-president; Lizzie W. Turney, '03, Treasurer; Frances G. Terry, '03, Secretary. Among the guests present, were Mrs. Durant, her friend Mrs. Frost, and her niece Miss Jones.

The sum of $200 approximately has been raised among the faculty and students, to be contributed toward the ransom of Miss Stone.

Fiske Cottage is rejoicing in electric lights this year, and the installation is especially good since the expenses were borne by Mrs. Fiske for whom the cottage was named.

Miss Charlotte Marsden is House President of Fiske Cottage.

On Wednesday evening, October 23, Phi Sigma entertained the Agora.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Plans are under way for the annual production of the Golf Club play. This will be given sometime before the Christmas holidays, probably in the early part of December. Play and cast are to be kept as secret as possible.

Wellesley has been variously represented in the current magazines the past summer.

September Scribners publishes "Pink of Courtesy" by Katharine Lee Bates; the August Atlantic, "Our Brother, the Mountain," by Florence Converse, '93; the July Century, "Alfred," by Ellen Dean Smith, '98; the October Criterion, "The Bungalow Ranch," by Abby Carter Goodloe, '89; the June Smart Set, a Poem, by Lucy Van Name Morris, '00.

President Hazard is erecting a house on the knoll in front of Stone Hall. The architecture is to be domestic in style.

Mrs. Pauline A. Durant is to spend the winter at her home in Wellesley. Bessie Smith, '95, is spending the winter with her.

The Macmillan Co. have recently published "An Introduction to Psychology," by Mary Whiton Calkins.

President Hyde of Bowdoin preached in the Chapel, Sunday, Oct. 20.

Sunday night, Oct. 20, a meeting of the Wellesley Chapter of College Settlements Association was held in the Houghton Memorial Chapel. Prof. W. Allan Neilson, a man of much experience in College Settlement work, was the speaker.

On Sunday evening, Oct. 20, after the College Settlement Meeting, Miss Hazard spoke to the Bible and Mission classes in the Faculty Parlor.

The Rev. Dr. Tomkins of Philadelphia, will preach in Houghton Memorial Chapel on Sunday, Oct. 27. Musical Vespers.

Miss Hazard and Miss Roberts are delegates to the bicentennial celebration of Yale University, this week.

Miss Pendleton, in a series of receptions on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week, entertained the faculty and the new students of the College in the faculty parlor. On Tuesday, Miss Pendleton was assisted by the Misses Sanborn, Storm, Wood, Rice, Fenton and Huntington; on Wednesday, by the Misses Klingenhagen, Morrison, Marston, Nusbickel, Diehl, Scott, Pierce and Button; and on Thursday, by the Misses Adams, Conklin, A. E. Snyder, Carlisle, Miller, Goddard, Ripley, Kitchen and Hart.

On Monday evening, Oct. 21, Miss Breyfogle entertained the Chicago girls with a dance in the gymnasium and asked the other Illinois girls to meet them. The programmes, on which was a list of ten dances, were one of the interesting features of the evening, being foreign postal cards which Miss Breyfogle had collected during her visit abroad.

On last Saturday afternoon Miss Wilcox gave an informal reception in the faculty parlor to the graduate students, to meet

Mary Leavens, '01, is teaching in the Dorchester High School.

Mary Haskell, '97, is teaching in Boston. Miss Haskell spent the summer in England and Scotland.

Frances Stuart De Mott, '94, spent Sunday in Wellesley.

Anne Bixby Chamberlain, '93, spent Sunday at College a week ago.

Bertha Doane, '01, is spending the winter at Webb City, Missouri, resting from the summer's gaieties.

Lucile Reynolds, '99, has announced her engagement to Mr. Walter Adams of Lynn, Mass.

The friends of Miss Amy Boutelle, '97, have received the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Kendall Crocker of Boston.

Pauline Sage, '01, who has been spending the summer abroad, visiting in England and Scotland, returned last Tuesday and is spending a few days at college before returning home.

Bertha Batting, '01, is spending the week at college, the guest of Mary Caroline Smith, '01.

Catherine Dwight, '01, is teaching mathematics in the Detroit Seminary.

Katrina Storms, '00, at her home in Evansville, Ill., is busily occupied in sending in contributions to the Black Cat Story Contest to be decided in February.

Flora Skinner, '99, who has been spending several weeks in Wellesley, has returned to her home in Westfield, N. Y.

Marjorie Hemingway, Alice Whiting, Bertha Smith and Cornelia Shaw of 1900—who have been spending a year traveling in Europe, have returned to America.

Florence Shirley, '95, has returned from her sojourn abroad. She is to be married in June.

Gertrude Carter, '96, has gone, as a missionary, to Hong Kong.

Maude Thompson, '94, is studying at the College for a Master's Degree in Archaeology. She is living at the Tea Room.

Diamond Donner, '01, is studying music with Miss Priscilla White of Boston.

The friends of Laura Reed and Julia Park, 1901, who have gone out as teachers to the Philippine Islands, will perhaps be interested to know a few facts concerning them.

The Government Transport Thomas, on which they sailed, left San Francisco on the 23d of July and reached Honolulu in one week. Their stay there was made very pleasant on account of the hospitality shown them. This was the only stop which the Thomas made until it reached Manila on the 21st of August. Although the voyage was a long one, it was very pleasant, because of the many interesting friendships formed.

After a few weeks at Manila, the teachers were assigned to their respective positions. Miss Reed is stationed at Aagupan, some 125 miles north of Manila, and Miss Park, three miles north of her, at Calasico. It was impossible for them to be put together, as they are both inexperienced, but they are fortunate in being within riding distance of each other.

So far they are both in very good health and spirits and their friends hope that all the news from them will be as encouraging as it has been so far.
